

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Table of Content	v
List of Illustrations	vii
About the Authors	viii
Acknowledgments	xii
Foreword	xiii
Chapters
Title/ Contributors	Pages
Chapter One: Stoking political instability: An introduction - Nosa Owens-Ibie	1 - 7
Chapter Two: Privacy, confidentiality and the uses and misuses of social media - Nosa Owens-Ibie	8 - 44
Chapter Three: Opinion leaders' perspectives on hate speech, and fake news reporting and Nigeria's political stability - Linus I Ogbuoshi, Adeola Sidikat Oyeleke & Olutobi Michael Folorunsho	45 - 69
Chapter Four: Social media and polarisation in Nigeria: Analysis of responses to selected media influencers' conversations on diverse issues on Twitter - Ifedolapo Ademosu & Abiodun Solomon Oyeleye	70 - 99
Chapter Five: Mainstream media reporting of hate speech and press freedom in Nigerian politics - Oluwakemi M. Oriola	100 - 121
Chapter Six: Influence of digital images on the propagation of fake news among residents of South-East, Nigeria - Titilayo R. Osuagwu	122 - 150
Chapter Seven: Undermining the freedom of expression: The case of fake news in Nigeria - Ismail Adegboyega Ibraheem, Kabir Alabi Garba	151 - 177
Chapter Eight: Freedom of information and the spread of fake news - Alex Tokunbo Adaja & Felix Olajide Talabi	178 - 198
Chapter Nine: Fake news, social media, and the consolidation of Nigeria's democratic cultures - Simon Ayodele Okaiyeto & Rasheed Idowu Badmus	199 - 224
Chapter Ten: Dissecting fake news and half-truths on social media in Nigeria - Christian Chinedu Odoemelam & Queen Ekemeye Odoemelam	225 - 250

Chapter Eleven: Perspectives on the use of radio in countering hate speech and violence in Benue and Delta States - Catherine Isioma Nwokoro	251 - 280
Index	281